For my birthday my family built my library out of reused material. It was a family project, we obtained a permit from our city, and it has been a huge impact and blessing in my neighborhood. I recently on my one year anniversary added an annex, due to the overwhelming amount of books coming and going. My guest book is full of wonderful encouragement and thank you's.. Like other stewards I place seasonal items and make book marks...

Establish in June 2020 in Mylo Park, a village of Ebensburg, Pennsylvania. This Little Free Library has a primary focus for children's literature, with offerings spanning the Pre-k to 12th Grade ranges. The steward's goal to offer a selection of diverse children's books featuring authors of color, books that discuss cultures, feature people of color as protagonists, and all works of literature that show how wonderfully diverse the world is.

This library was created by a group of 3 Senior Girl Scouts 3 years ago. The girls ( Caitlin Schmuck, Hannah Purbaugh, and Kayla Donnelly) were all in Rockwood Girl Scouts together since Kindergarten. They built the little free library as a final project together. The idea for the library came because Caitlin's cousin Nina Hermès passed away from cancer. She had an immense heart and a love of reading.
